Mini Missions—Each day begins with a Bible study about a way that Jesus served others and then we go on a field trip into the community to serve others. There will be a team of adults working with the youth during the week, leading the study, transporting them to the agencies, working alongside the youth, and processing the experiences of the day. There are no registration costs, friends are invited to register, but pre-registration is necessary. Registration forms are available at the church or on the website.

Middle School Mini-Missions (rising 6th through rising 8th graders) are June 19-23, 9 AM-1 PM. Registrations due 6/11.

High School Mini-Missions (rising 9th graders through graduated seniors) are June 26-30, 9 AM-1 PM. Registrations due 6/18.

Bluegrass Sunday!

Sunday, July 16th, we'll be worshipping in the style of Bluegrass! Join us at 10:00 a.m.

a note from Chris

Hello Friends! Summer in the church is one of my favorite seasons! Once Pentecost happens, followed by the lesser-appreciated Trinity Sunday, the church calendar propels us forward in what we call “ordinary time,” which is a time often associated with hearing some of our favorite gospel stories on a Sunday morning. If you’ve ever wondered why we break out the green colors during this season of “ordinary time,” it symbolizes new spiritual growth in the church and ourselves.

Beyond that, summer worship gives the church an opportunity to exhale just a little, be a little more informal, have a little lemonade on the lawn, and channel some of those “old time religion” feelings of community, and study of our Bibles. It’s a time to really enjoy being together for adults, youth, and children, with a few added fellowship events, and a church concert or two. Make sure to look at the rest of the newsletter to see the many happenings over the next several weeks!

For my part, I wanted to share a little about summer Sunday school. As you’ll see, there are many different talks and leaders the next twelve weeks for our summer adult Sunday School, all of which have something thoughtful and informative to share. The one that involves me specifically, is starting on Sunday, June 11 through Sunday, July 2. I’ll be teaching a study at 9:00 AM with a book called “Neighborhood Church: Transforming Your Congregation into a Powerhouse for Mission.”

While that is an ambitious title for sure, it is a very interesting book which challenges some of the church’s internal conversations we often have about not having enough money or people, using our space most effectively, transforming our thinking from “scarcity” to God’s “abundance,” and being a church of community partnerships.

Indeed, how often do we say phrases like, “Remember when we had...” or perhaps the most non-biblical phrase of them all, “We’ve always done it that way.” As a church “reforming and always being reformed,” striving to hear the Spirit’s next nudge and call, this book highlights how the core of the Gospel encourages us to try new and bold ideas without fear of failure. A mindset of scarcity, while easy to embrace in times of change, uncertainty, and anxiety, is not at all the ministry Jesus modeled. Five loaves and two fish, twelve less-than-qualified disciples, a mustard seed of faith that can move mountains, it seems Jesus can do a whole lot with a whole little! Let the church say, “Amen!”

I hope you can join along with this study as we learn together a better vocabulary for naming and seeing God’s abundance around Salem Presbyterian Church. If you’d like a book, they’ll be available Sunday, June 4th, on the table outside of Gresham Hall. There is an encouraged donation of $15.00 for the book, but please don’t let that be a factor in attending the class as all are welcome to join as we wade into these timely discussions together. We will meet in room 210 upstairs.

Lastly, I’ll also be teaching an “Inquiry Class” for anyone interested in learning more about Salem Presbyterian, the PCUSA, or becoming a member. This two-session class will be on Sundays June 4 and June 11 right after worship from 11:15-12:00, also in room 210. If you’ve ever had questions about becoming a member or just generally about Salem Presbyterian or the PCUSA, come and check it out. It’s an exciting time to be the church, and it’s a blessing to do ministry together!

May this “ordinary time,” help you shine!

Chris

What is CEDEPCA?

CEDEPCA is a Christian non-profit organization headquartered in Guatemala City, serving Central America. CEDEPCA is an educational center that provides safe, accepting, creative spaces where women and men from many different Christian traditions can deepen their faith while strengthening their ability to confront the key issues facing their communities.

CEDEPCA seeks to form thoughtful, compassionate disciples of Jesus Christ whose world is big enough to include all God's children and those who care for all of God's creation. CEDEPCA offers people the tools to eradicate violence and injustice in their world, especially violence against women and children.

Women's Ministry

From its inception, CEDEPCA has been committed to having an impact on women in Central America and Mexico by offering educational, biblical and theological experiences grounded in feminist perspectives. Faith-based activities emphasize developing equal relationships in women's daily lives and are designed to empower women to understand and assume their personal and legal rights, to take leadership roles in their churches and communities, and to continue or begin their formal education. The Women's Ministry works with women in the church, community and church leaders, and expectant mothers.

Biblical and Theological Education

The mission of CEDEPCA's Walk to Emmaus Biblical and Theological Seminary is to prepare Guatemalan and Central American leadership to practice transforming theology and pastoral work that incorporates subjects on gender, interculturalism and the environment. The seminary's objective is to prepare women and men to analyze their contexts, to reflect biblically and theologically, and to engage in transformative actions in their churches, in the places where they teach, and in their communities. The Seminary offers a program of studies in Bible and Theology on the University Level and in the Biblical Pastoral Institute.

Disaster Ministry

CEDEPCA's Disaster Ministry works with individuals and communities so that when extreme events happen, they won't become a total disaster for the community. Changes in the world's climate have made Guatemala one of the most vulnerable countries. We can't stop hurricanes, tropical storms, earthquakes, or volcanic eruptions. But CEDEPCA's prevention and preparation training can reduce impact and strengthen resilience to help communities recover more quickly. When disasters do occur, CEDEPCA responds with material aid, and with psycho-social and spiritual support, continuing to work long after the initial emergency has passed.

Intercultural Encounters

Intercultural Encounters is a program that designs and facilitates experiences of encounter, reflection, dialogue, and mutual service between people of the United States and Canada with Central American communities in search of a more just, tolerant and equitable world.

Celebrating Graduates

We are proud of all our graduates and the hard work they have invested in their education over the years! We congratulate all of this year's high school and college/university graduates who have worked so hard and have wonderful dreams for the future. We will celebrate their accomplishments on June 4 during worship, and pray that God's Spirit will continue to guide them in the next stages of their lives.

High School:

Ryland Darby is graduating from Salem High School and will attend Virginia Western Community College in the fall. He hopes to transfer to Virginia Tech and study kinesiology.

Camden Hart is graduating from Salem High School. He will be going to Virginia Tech and Majoring in Sports Media and Analytics.

College:

Izzy Donahue graduated from Warren Wilson College, a liberal arts work college in Asheville, NC this May. The school requires each student to participate in community service, on campus work, and academics to create a unique college experience. She graduated with a BA in Business and a Minor in Peace & Justice Studies. Her participation on campus included serving as the Student Leader of the Center for Student Well-being and an internship with the Community Health Education Program at Planned Parenthood in Asheville. She will be returning to Salem for the summer while she continues a job search for something she that integrates entrepreneurship and community health.

Taylor Fischer graduated from Longwood University with a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education.

She was a member of Zeta Tau Alpha. She will complete her student teaching in the fall, and then substitute teach.

Emma Smith graduated from Washington and Lee with a degree in Business Administration and American Politics. She has a job in Finance in Washington DC.

Graduate School:

Sarah Gobble graduated from the Seminary of the Southwest in Austin, TX with a Master's Degree in Clinical Mental Health Counseling.

Kelly Johnson graduated with her Master's in Elementary Education from Liberty University. She has been teaching Kindergarten at Hurt Park Elementary and will continue to teach Kindergarten there next school year.

JUST ADD WATER

Drink Up for Better Health!

Water is vital to all living things and is the most abundant substance on earth. Approximately 60% of our body's makeup is water. We need water to function and grow properly. It's in the food we eat and the beverages we drink. We bathe in it and use it to wash our clothes, dishes, and cars. We may travel the world on top of it or spend countless hours of recreation in it! The flowers and vegetables we plant cannot survive without water- and neither can we. Man can live up to forty-five days without food but would not last a week without H₂O!

Wet Your Whistle

Dehydration, a serious and potentially fatal condition, can occur rapidly, especially among young children and the elderly whose water intake has been neglected. In fact, dehydration is a common occurrence among the elder population because our sense of thirst begins to progressively diminish starting at age fifty, becoming increasingly more compromised with each passing year. Also, because we tend to take more medications- such as diuretics, laxatives, and antidepressants as we grow older- coupled with reduced kidney function and possibly limited mobility to get up for a drink, we are at much higher risk for dehydration.

Signs of dehydration may include, but are not limited to:

- Excessive thirst
- Dry mouth
- Chronic fatigue (increased napping!)
- Irritability and weakness
- Confusion and lightheadedness
- Sunken eyes
- Concentrated urine
- UTI (urinary tract infection)
- Muscle cramps
- Poor skin elasticity

“The 8x8 Rule”

When it comes to the amount of water our bodies need, much depends on our health status, activity level, and in what type of climate we live. However, a majority of studies agree that we Americans would do well to up our water intake. While some experts debunk the “8x8 rule” – 8 eight-ounce glasses of water a day- at the very least it's an easy way to remember to drink more fluids. Understanding our need to increase the amount of water we consume; it's encouraging to know that foods are responsible for approximately 20% of our total water intake. Fruits and vegetables especially, are noted for their high water content. So, eat a tomato, munch on celery and cucumbers, or have some watermelon!

Water Works

Unless your doctor, for medical reasons has directed otherwise, drinking more water has many health benefits. It boosts energy, regulates body temperature, protects organs and tissues, removes toxins, lubricates joints, carries nutrients and oxygen to cells, sharpens concentration, and helps with weight reduction. It prevents headaches, constipation, urinary tract infections, and kidney stones. It is responsible for shining hair and a glowing complexion. What an easy way to improve our overall health!

Indeed, water provides many benefits, spiritual as well as physical. Through Baptism, God claims us as His own and we are sealed for all eternity into the body of Christ. Thanks be to our loving Father, who not only supplies refreshing water for our bodies, but also living water for our souls.

John 4:13 “Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks the water I give him will never thirst.”

Shalom,
Kitty

SUMMER SUNDAY SCHOOL Sundays at 9:00 AM

We believe that Christian Education is important. Ideally, it happens both at home and at the church during class time. Although our summer schedule of classes is modified, we still offer educational enrichment for all ages throughout the summer.

- Elementary students will focus on a different Bible story each week and explore that story through craft, discussion, recreation, and prayer.
- Adults and Youth will take part in short lesson series that last for 1-4 weeks on various topics.
 - o June 4—The Opioid Epidemic and what we can do. Leaders from local agencies will inform us about the opioid epidemic, educate us about Narcan (the overdose reversal drug), and share their reflections and experiences in regards to drugs.
 - o June 11, 18, 25 and July 2—Chris Vogado will lead a discussion about the book “Neighborhood Church: Transforming Your Congregation into a Powerhouse for Mission.” Let’s put our faith into action! (See Chris’s article on page 2 for more information.)

The Youth Group (6th-12th graders) typically does not meet together on Sunday nights during the summer. Instead, we have some week-long events together. This summer we are looking forward to Mini-Missions for Middle Schoolers (June 19-23) and High Schoolers (June 26-30). We would love to have youth help out with VBS for the elementary children (July 10-14). There are other pop-up plans in the works, too, for mini-golf or baseball, hikes or ice cream. Jay Crumpacker and Alex Brown deserve special thanks for their commitment to being with the youth each Sunday night. The relationships formed between the youth, and between youth and adults are invaluable!

The Gresham Hall Art Show will be growing over the summer. You are invited to share the photos you take this summer that capture the essence of “Live, Laugh, Love.” Please email pictures to Janet Chisom at janet.chisom@salempres.org and tag each one whether it is “Live,” “Laugh,” or “Love.” These will be printed off and added to the collage in Gresham Hall.

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Over the years, several people have been very generous in establishing scholarships in memory of family members. Each year, the interest from these funds is used to award scholarships to assist with academic expenses related to college, university, or post-graduate work. The scholarship money has come from the John T. Bowman Living Award, Harvey F. Bredlow Memorial Scholarship, Iris Peterson Scholarship Fund, and Jerry W. Barnett Memorial Scholarship. This year there were six applicants for the scholarships. Kemper Darby (junior at Radford) and Ryland Darby (freshman at Virginia Western) both received the Jerry W. Barnett Memorial Scholarship. Chloe Weaver (sophomore at UVA at Wise), Katelyn Crumpacker (sophomore at Virginia Tech), Emma Johnson (sophomore at Roanoke College) and Felecia Parsell (Regent University) each received money from the other scholarships.

Family Promise

Our second week for our church to host Family Promise is June 11-17. The As usual, we will need volunteers to provide meals and supplies, serve as dinner and overnight hosts, and help to set up and take down the bedrooms. We will co-host with Restoration Church. Please keep the families in your prayers. Sign up before or after worship on the signup sheets. Contact Susan Taylor or Carolyn Greene with questions.

Habitat For Humanity

On May 6 and 12, SPC had 17 total volunteers working on Aubrey Wood's house through Habitat for Humanity. Thank you to all those who participated. We had great fun and got a lot done. We framed and decked the front porch, mowed the yard, built perimeter fencing, organized the site, began framing the stairs for the second story, put up mounts for the kitchen, secured the tool trailer door, and much more.

Thank you Habitat Team! Wanda Ziegler, Mike Wenzel, Nathan Auldridge, Chris Vogado, Rachel Vogado, Laura Hart, Freeman Nester, Emily Nester, Roberta Hipp, Paul Nordt, Wilson Rakes, Chris Cothran, Nicholas Cothran, Norman Ferguson, Jay Crumpacker, and Suzie Simpson.

Giving Garden

There will be work days/mornings for the Giving Garden on the first Saturday of each month from 9:00 AM-12:00 PM. They work days are June 3, July 1, Aug 5, Sept 2, and Oct 7. All dates and times are subject to change depending on the weather.

Opportunity to Serve!

The CROP Hunger Walk is partnering with the Community Solutions Center (CSC), an arm of Feeding Southwest Virginia. There are several days that the CROP community is invited to volunteer at CSC to learn more about this ministry. Contact Janet Chisom (janet.chisom@salempres.org, 540-389-3881) to sign up to volunteer. June 15, 9:30 AM-12:30 PM at the Pantry; June 15 1:00-3:00 PM for Children's Feeding Kitchen; and July 13, 10:00 AM-12:00 PM for Children's Feeding Kitchen.

GIVING AT SPC

Other than the kingdom of God, Jesus says more about money than anything else. It matters to him what we do with it because it's not ours but a gift from God. We're stewards of his gift, using some of it to help do his work through the church.

While we continue to face many uncertainties, we know that God is with us, knows our needs, and has promised to provide. Through our gifts to the church and to community agencies, we are giving back to God a portion of what God has provided for us. Through our giving, we can help provide for others. We ask that you, as you are able, continue your generous financial support of the ministries of Salem Presbyterian Church: worship, education, outreach and mission, and support for organizations that provide direct services to individuals in need.

For information on Pledging and Tithing, the Church Budget, or online giving, contact the Church Office, Treasurer Tom Burns, or Stewardship and Finance Work Group member Jim Bowen. Statements on giving for tax purposes are mailed out quarterly and at the end of each year. Thank you for your prayers, your participation in online worship, and your continuing generous financial support.

Family Promise to Leave Marshall House

Dear Friends at Salem Presbyterian Church,

Family Promise of Greater Roanoke (formerly Roanoke Valley Interfaith Hospitality Network) was facing homelessness as an organization over twelve years ago when the Veterans Administration discontinued our lease to use the building we were using for our family center for their own programs. After much consideration and praying, Salem Presbyterian opened its arms to us to allow use of Marshall House as the home for our family center and offices. Throughout the years we have used your church building for board meetings and skill building classes. You have generously repaired many things, kept the grounds clear, and allowed us to use the building as we needed. You have provided a home on the way home for the families we serve. You have been amazing partners in ministry and we will forever be grateful.

Over the last twelve years we have increased programming to include housing stability and aftercare, and prevention and diversion. We have increased staffing to accommodate the new programming. Our board included in the strategic plan a few years ago to find a new home for our family center. Late last fall I stumbled upon a building that seemed suitable. The board began the arduous task of evaluating the compatibility with our projected needs and purchasing the property. We purchased the building located off of Williamson Road in Roanoke County and just this week began the process of renovating it for our needs. We expect the renovations to be complete in late August or early September. We have not set an actual move date yet. As you know, renovations can be terribly unpredictable.

This comes with mixed emotions. Sadness at leaving our "home" for twelve years and leaving our neighbors across the street who have been so kind, generous, and loving. Joy at the opportunity to embark on a new journey, increase the assistance to families with children, and create relationships with new neighbors. You will always be in our hearts as the ones who served as the hands and feet of God during the last twelve years.

Our new home will still be a family day center. We will not provide shelter at the family center, but will continue the rotational program with congregations. Our relationship will continue as you continue your rotational weeks. Thank you for being so very generous and allowing us to use Marshall House as our "home on the way home". You have provided Promise to over 261 families with 516 children! Thank you!

We will be in touch with Reverend Vogado and Reid McClure to work out the details on our move. There are not enough words to convey how grateful the board, staff, and families are for your generous hospitality.

FROM THE SESSION

Session met on May 23, 2023. Please note:

- Summer activities for youth, Inter-generational, and missions are underway, including summer hours for Sunday School and Worship.
- Personnel is working on the Manual of Procedure and the Safe Sanctuary Covenant.
- Stewardship and Finance has started on the 2024 budget and will be doing a Financial Review of 2022 in June. A motion to approve 2 special offerings to be collected later in the year was approved unanimously.
- Facilities managed and fixed 2 issues in the kitchen and has scheduled the installation of our new keypad on the Clay Street door.
- Christian Ed is working on the Summer Art Show in Gresham Hall, Summer Sunday School, and Mini Missions for Middle and High School students. A motion was made to add additional funds to the funds available in the Scholarship Fund to be pulled from the Sears Fund for this year's applicants. The motion was approved with a split decision of 13 Yes/4 No.

- Inreach is working on a reception for graduates, summer events for intergenerational fun, pictures for our pictorial directory, visitor recognition and contact, new Friendship Pads, and offering a sitting area on our front lawn for Olde Salem Days.
- Outreach is hosting a dinner with Betsey and Eric Moe about CEDEPCA. In May, they gave $663.53 to 3 families to help with utilities and rent through Central Intake. They are hoping to get a new coordinator to help Carolyn Greene with Family Promise.
- Worship is working on the Bluegrass Worship service this summer. They are also looking for 2 people to help coordinate flowers for the sanctuary on Sunday mornings.
- The COVID policy will be taken out of the bulletin and removed from the entrances to the church.
